Senate Budget Committee Chairman Judd Gregg Comments on Nomination of Rob Portman to become Director of the Office of Management and Budget

“Rob Portman has done an excellent job as the U.S. Trade Representative, and as a former member of the House Budget Committee, he has a unique and thorough understanding of the importance of passing responsible budgets. I hope my colleagues will act quickly to confirm the President’s choice of Rob Portman to head OMB and I look forward to working with him in the near future.”
